The choice is yours

We believe that everyone should have the choice of great-tasting food. That's why we travel around the globe to the best food-producing nations, bringing a consistently high-quality supply of products to kitchens everywhere.

It's why we aim to provide variety with every product, bringing a world of versatility to every pub, restaurant, street food truck and emerging cuisine across Europe. And it's why we seek to raise the bar, bringing innovation and inspiration to the food world, always packed with freshness, to be cooked with passion.

We source with pride, we prepare with precision, we serve up culinary possibility.

Sustainability

As one of the world's largest food companies, we have a responsibility to help build a more sustainable food system. Directed by our new sustainability strategy, we have set bold goals and commitments that aspire to sustainably feed our growing world.

Material Resources

Our packaging is meant to protect the products while creating as little environmental impact as possible. The packaging has a vital role to ensure that when you get the product, it will be as we planned and as you want it. It will protect the product at all stages, from production via transportation and the supermarket to your kitchen, while at the same time keeping it fresh for as long as possible. This way the package may also help reduce food waste. We also want the environmental impact of the packaging to be as low as possible.
